Consumer, Sensory & Market Insights

HELPING YOU DETERMINE WHAT CONSUMERS WANT

WHO WE ARE

The Consumer, Sensory & Market Insights team at Vineland Research and Innovation Centre consists of industry experts in sensory, consumer and market research with backgrounds in biology, food science, marketing, psychology, oenology and culinary arts.

Together, we are a powerful resource for your business. Let us help de-risk your high-level business decisions, guide your marketing initiatives and ultimately drive your sales.

We are designated as an eligible research institute by the Canada Revenue Agency, meaning your project may be eligible for research tax credits.
